Mr. Mills had said to him shortly after the hearing on the Southern Gas and Electric Company's offer, that he and Electric Company's offer, that he was totally opposed to the sale or lease of this public utility. The Laburnum water grant, he said, was approved by a unanimous vote of both branches of the Council, and was wholly in keeping with the city's policy to extend water privileges to adjacent to make a good speech, and that such a qualification is desirable, because the Mayor is called upon frequently to welcome visitors in public. It was further objected, he said, that did not make a good speech, and that such a qualification is desirable, because the Mayor is called upon frequently to welcome visitors in public. It was further objected, he said, that he was the matter with my appearance, gentlemen?" asked Mr. Umto extend water privileges to adjacent properties under special terms and

"What is the matter with my appearance, gentlemen?" asked Mr. Umlauf. "They say they have never seen me in a dress suit. If you are looking for a dress suit in this campaign, you are not looking for me! Can't it make a good speech? Some who besteed that I could not have found out debute called out cheers and hisses in abundance. It was a sick-'em-Tige battle between two favorites, with the Mills adherents, judging by the noise, in the majority. On one or two occasions the yeiling approached the dignity of a demonstration at a Saturday afternoon baseball game when the umpire is robbing the home team.

"What is the matter with my appearance, gentlemen?" asked Mr. Umlauf. "They say they have never seen me in a dress suit. If you are looking for me! Can't it make a good speech? Some who believed that I could not have found out differently in this campaign."

Mr. Umlauf recited other alleged objections. He was opposed, he said, he cause he was the candidate of the precahers, and again because it was believed that he would close things up too tight. Neither objection, he council.

McDowell, to show that he at no time advocated the founding of a park for colored people in the northeastern section of the city. Such a plan, he said, would have met with his unqualitied opposition.

From Superintendent Knowles, of the Gas Works, Mr. Mills read a letter in which the superintendent recalled that Mr. Mills had said to him shortly af.

Further objection is made, said Mr. Umlauf, that he is without the ability to make a good speech, and that

Founder of Baraca and Philathea
Classes to Visit Richmond.

Marshall A. Hudson, founder of the Baraca and Philathea classes, will be in Richmond on May 2 and 3 to hold what he calls a "fifty-mile conference" a conference to which all the classes within a radius of fifty miles of Richmond will send delegates.

A very attractive program is being been of young people in the classes from about thirty to someting more than 990,000. Last year, at the World-Wide Convention, 26,000 conversions were reported in Baraca and Philathea classes and only 60 per cent of the classes reported in Baraca and Philathea classes, and only 60 per cent of the classes reported in Baraca and Philathea classes, and only 60 per cent of the classes reported in Baraca and Philathea classes, and only 60 per cent of the classes reported in Baraca and Philathea classes, and only 60 per cent of the classes reported in Baraca and Philathea classes, and only 60 per cent of the classes reported in Baraca and Philathea classes, and only 60 per cent of the classes reported in Baraca and Philathea classes, and only 60 per cent of the classes reported in Baraca and Philathea classes, and only 60 per cent of the classes reported in Baraca and Philathea classes, and only 60 per cent of the classes reported in Baraca and Philathea classes, and only 60 per cent of the classes reported in Baraca and Philathea classes, and only 60 per cent of the classes, and only 60 per cent o

A very attractive program is being arranged, so that the classes in this vicinity may have the benefit of Mr. Hudson's advice on many of the problems which have come up before them. At the conference many of the features of the local work will be discussed by local people who have been successful, so that Mr. Hudson will not
